

Conditions of Business

1. Ownership
All equipment, whether on wet hire or dry hire, remains the property of Fresh Audio Ltd.
2. Crew
Our crew and staff are provided on a loan-out bases from Fresh Audio Ltd. All contracts etc are with Fresh Audio Ltd and not with the crew member direct.
3. Rates
All costs quoted are exclusive of transportation and VAT. Overtime, expenses and additional equipment used on the day will be charged on top of any quoted costs.
4. Insurance
Clients are responsible for insuring their production adequately to cover our crew and equipment.
5. Cancellation
Once a job has been confirmed, cancellation will incur a 100% cancellation fee of both the crew & equipment booked.
6. Kit Damage/Loss
Any damages or lost equipment while on a production (including in transit to) is the responsibility of the client and a replacement or repair cost will be added to your invoice accordingly. However, if the damage or loss was caused by the negligence of our Fresh Audio crew member, we will not expect you to cover the costs.
7. 7th Consecutive Day
Our crew should be scheduled for a maximum 6 day week, but should a 7th day or more be unavoidable, the 7th day and any further consecutive days will be charged at double time.
8. Illness
In the event our Fresh Audio crew member becomes ill during or within 24hr before a job commences, we will endeavour to provide a suitable replacement.
9. Covid-19
 - a) Please see <https://www.freshaudio.tv/covid-19> for our up to date Covid-19 working procedures.
 - b) Overseas shoots & quarantine; Unless otherwise agreed in writing, should a production abroad go into quarantine, or upon return to the UK be required to quarantine, the client will be charged the effected crew members daily rate for the full period of quarantine, based on a 5-day working week.
10. Conflicting Conditions
Fresh Audio's Conditions of Business supersede any conflicting conditions of the client company, unless a formal agreement has been signed by both parties.
11. Acknowledgement
By doing business with us we will assume your acceptance of our Conditions of Business.

